A close-up photograph of a white, ribbed plastic lid or cap, likely for a container. The lid has a circular base with a central hole and a textured, ribbed edge. It appears slightly aged or dirty.
